General Comment

The u.s. Government needs to stay out of each citizens business and out of our retirement planning. Leave us alone and free to make our own retirement plans and decisions.

It is not even laughable that our out of control government full of waste and fraud would attempt to insinuate itself in a citizens everyday affairs and retirement planning. we are living on and within an actual budget, unlike the government, which does not hold itself to that high of a standard. It is beyond insulting to suggest the government (or anyone in it) knows what is best for our money. It is our retirement & our money. Back-off.
