General Comment

Leave my 401k alone!!! We don't need more rules & regulations saying how we can & can't spend our retirement. Seriously, stop it! We the American people are smart enough to plan for our own retirements. The so called social security won't be available for me when I reach retirement (& yet it still comes out of my family's paycheck) so you better bet I'm smart about investing & saving for retirement. You can't even stop the social security fund from going bankrupt & you think I will trust you to mess with my 401k & IRA??
