

07/16/2015 Kennett Warren

I strongly oppose the DOL's proposed fiduciary standard for advisors. If advisors are held to this standard, every American worker should be held to this standard, including our political leaders and our physicians! A standard like this will provide little to no benefit and lead to much higher costs for financial institutions and investors. There is way too much government intervention and regulation in our country. It needs to stop!