Seems to me that any conflicts of interest should not be allowed. Is there a set degree of conflict that is allowable? And who shall be the person to determine that each and every bit of compensation given to someone with a conflict is not being abused? We have seen in MANY forms of our government where conflicts of interest occur and NOT ONE is stopped or prohibited until it has gone on for years! No! Any conflict of interest should NOT be rewarded!