General Comment

Get off your rear end(s) and do the things that most all the people want. Somebody should take the bull by the horns and fix the things that everybody knows needs fixing. There is a way and it may not be the most popular but lets get it done.

What you in Washington, are doing is; letting those whom want to ruin our country make all the moves without any resistance which is against the gran of what should be taking place. There is nothing wrong with standing up and taking charge. Let your voice be heard and with authority! The sinuous is among all most all good American citizens, that you all are afraid of those who may not like your doing something against what they are trying to do, i.e.,CHANGE OUR COUNTRY! We like our country and we desire to see it remain something very near what it's always been!!!

With Respect,

Curtis W Andrews, Sr
