General Comment

I can do my own research & weigh the legitimacy of the financial advice I receive from others myself. Do not restrict the flow of financial advice to the public under the guise of having our best interest in mind. Keep your hands off our retirement & the advice from the financial community flowing freely & unfettered. Let truth & falsehood grapple & stop playing big brother under the guise of doing what is best for the people. Leave people's finances alone & stop trying to control everything & everyone. I wholeheartedly object to the EBSA proposed rule. Mind your own finances & your own bad spending habits & do your jobs serving the people instead of corralling & controlling them for your own interests.
