General Comment

I would like to urge you to stay out of the citizens future investments. It should be allowed for each individual to decide how to hedge themselves a retirement fund. The most the gov. should do is suggest good ways to invest. The government hasn't had good luck with investing our social security.. How can they tell us we must invest any certain way? Advise is good. All other should be suggestions only. Please leave it up to the individual families. Thank you for your time and consideration. Respectfully yours,
