The government does not need to involve itself in my 401K and what I plan to do with it. It is money that I saved and I am the only one that should have a say in how it is used. Please try to keep yourself busy finding ways to slow government spending and not mine.