General Comment

I have been planning for retirement since I was 20 years old. If the government does its part to keep Social security afloat and health insurance costs as low as possible, I will be fine. My investments in retirement accounts should be mine to use as I please. Stay out of my money management ! I have no say on how my taxes are spent...thus, you have no say on how my life savings should be spent.

P.s. I've been a legal citizen of this great country and have paid my exorbitant taxes every year. You've already spent enough of my money on wasteful things and entitlement programs , even on benefits for illegal aliens. Enough is enough!
