General Comment

My husband and I worked hard for the money in our 401K account. We are very responsible and do not need any advice from a government agency to tell us how and when to spend our retirement money. Please keep your regulations off of private property. This country is looking more and more like George Orwell's 1984 scenario. We do not need any help from the government to live our lives...we can "pursue happiness" on our own terms. Thank You.
