General Comment

Not only am I smart enough to plan my own retirement, I am smart enough to know when those who are currently in charge of my retirement funds are thieves, liars, and crooks of the worst sort. The Federal Government, now in charge of my money for retirement, has left nothing in the kitty but IOU's which will NEVER be repaid, because they have left nothing anywhere to repay the system. If I had no financial wisdom and no training, I could still do better because I have a VERY vested interest in the success of my investing. The Feds have a wonderful system for their own retirement, paid for by my funds, so they really do not care if I have money for retirement or not. OF COURSE I AM SMART ENOUGH TO MANAGE MY OWN MONEY.
