General Comment

If we are able to save for our retirement without the governments help, we are damn sure smart enough to spend our retirement money the way we want. Of course the government would rather spend it to help everyone who is on welfare, pay for the bastards in prison etc., etc., etc.,

We have worked very hard for our retirement and we want to spend it on us and our family. We know how to buy groceries, pay bills, make donations to the food banks and United Way. Keep out of our lives! We are not dependent on the government like you would like us to be. We are very good at governing ourselves along with our counties. We do not need to be policed and have a rule for everything in our life.
