Leave my 401k ALONE. Is it not enough that we are already taxed and regulated into the ground? Must you have the last say-so on everything that is already mine? What group of voters will you buy with the proceeds? What sham project will you "fund" with that which you confiscate? I am quite happy to manage both the risk and reward in my 401k without your regulatory intervention. I own it, not you and your parasitic minions in government.

Please go away.
