My response to RIN 1210-AB33 is:

I will never contribute to an IRA or 401k ever again. You will not fund your out-of-control debt habit with my savings through forced bond purchases of an insolvent government.

I saw this coming and liquidated my IRA last year. I hope you choke on my tax penalty!

I will never buy stocks again. You have turned the once somewhat free market into a complete joke with your covert monetization and equities pumping through your minions on Wall Street and shadow hedge funds. Everyone laughs about it. You are a joke! Your official government statistics are also a complete farce.

I will do everything in my power to reduce my tax burden to the federal government by cutting back spending in every category of my life.

I will not pay any of my existing debts owed to fractional reserve bailout banks until they apply 0% interest to each and every one of my balances, retroactively and then pegged to the Fed Funds rate from here on out.

Good luck with your continued LOOTING efforts though!

M. Doyle
