This is most ABSURD IDIOTIC idea to come from you idiots yet!

The word is out what you are trying to do with Americans retirements! Well guess what--the smart folks are already starting to withdraw all their money now and take the penalty---You idiots will be succesfull in total economic collapse--good riddance to you all because none of you will be re-elected ever again!

If you actually think anyone will not pull their money out and take the penalty now you are sorely mistaken--only the true idiots will not do it and you will be unsuccessful in your attempts to steal our money - however you will succeed in economic suicide and carreer suicide. See you in the soup lines soon!

Sincerely

Mark Berreth
