General Comment

Dear Sirs -

Every single action in this proposed "rule" violates an individuals rights to choose, rights to private property, and so on. It is a massive attempt by the government to seize more of that which we, the people, earn in order to fund your massive Ponzi Scheme known as Social Security. It is an abomination. I am certain our founding fathers would wretch if they read the kind of things that you propose here.

Please log my comment as being AGAINST implementing any additional sort of "mandatory" contribution of my earnings into any type of "government" guaranteed anything. My money would be safer taped to the outside of my car than in the hands of the current administration.
