I am outraged that the government would even consider touching my retirement accounts. I earned that money. It is mine and nobody, not even the federal government has a right to tell me what to do with it. Your job is to protect my rights, including my property rights.

The words of our Founders are appropriate here:

The rights of persons, and the rights of property, are the objects, for the protection of which Government was instituted. James Madison

The moment the idea is admitted into society that property is not as sacred as the law of God, and that there is not a force of law and public justice to protect it, anarchy and tyranny commence. John Adams

Now what liberty can there be, where property is taken away without consent? Sam Adams

To take from one, because it is thought his own industry and that of his father has acquired too much, in order to spare to others, who, or whose fathers, have not exercised equal industry and skill, is to violate arbitrarily the first principle of association, the guarantee to everyone the free exercise of his industry and the fruits acquired by it. Thomas Jefferson
