General Comment

I am adamantly opposed to any regulation or proposed regulation which will convert 401k and IRA savings into annuities or other sources of income streams. The government has absolutely no business managing privately held retirement assets; this is just a ploy to steal peoples' money in order to finance the unconscionable national debt. This is OUR MONEY, not the governments! The Federal government needs to subsist on what it takes in on current taxes and not continue to fleece the populace to finance the out of control spending.
