General Comment

Keep the Government's hands off my retirement and 401K $. This is nothing more than a covert attempt to skim money from these plans and provide it to Congress for them to spend. I will not stand for the Government wanting to "help" me by ensuring a "lifetime revenue stream" - raping me would be a more appropriate description. Believe you will find that Americans will NOT stand for this. Get your own house in order and leave us alone. Consider this: the Government can't even run itself, how will it ever be able to run my retirement income, except to reduce what I should get in order to send more to Obama and Congress to spend. As Obama said recently, we can't keep spending more than we are bringing in. Translation - bring more in so we can spend more. Back off!!!!
