General Comment

No, I'm not interested or willing to participate in any plan that would give the government control of my IRA, 401k, etc. in order to help offset the current administration's deficit spending. I didn't contribute funds to my retirement just to have them zapped away by the current group of profligate politicians and others on a wild spending spree, leaving me nothing for my old age. For those who understand what this document IRS_FRDOC_001-0594 is really saying, I just don't see how anyone could support it.
