General Comment

Dear Sirs,

Please consider carefully submissions by the American Chiropractic Association regarding Grandfathered status for Group Health Plans.

This is a highly complex issue, but fairness for patients and practitioners must be improved and preserved. As you know, insurers will inevitably work to pay the least possible benefits. They are already changing the rules in anticipation of 2014, making it harder and harder to conduct a simple private practice.

Your thoughtful attention to preserving access to full-scope of practice chiropractic services for patients is greatly needed.

Sincerely,

Katharine M. Conable, D.C.
