US Dept of HHS,

I'm urging you to rescind the mandate that all contraceptives and sterilization procedures be covered by private health insurance.

Presently, the definition of "religious employer" only includes churches. However, there are many businesses and organizations beyond churches that have conscience objections. Please expand conscience protections for organizations that provide individual and group insurance and have moral or religious objections to various health services.

No Americans should be forced by the federal government to subsidize services they object to.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Dan Nordstrom
