

From: Herb Davis
To: E-OHPSCA2713.EBSA
Subject: federal rules Re: CMS-9992-IFC2
Date: Saturday, September 24, 2011 9:15:03 AM

In any public service whether transportation, education or health care, there should be professional service rendered without regard to religious beliefs.

No exceptions should be made in rendering any service to the public. If exceptions are made then it is not a public service but a religious service. If a persons religious beliefs interfere with professional service then they should find another profession.