General Comment

I would like to express my concern for the pending policy concerning health care coverage and reproductive regulations. I urge HHS to maintain their position on covering people the ability to obtain contraceptive care, without changing policies. The powerful religious institutions of this country have continued with their typical policies of oppressing medical and scientific progress, by utilizing the public forum to promote its agenda. We cannot allow organizations like the Catholic Church and its dogmatic practices, to strong arm us into shaping public policies that involve the future progress of medical science and communal organizations. Please stand firm.
