

From: Mears, Cynthia J.
To: E-OHPSCA2713.EBSA
Date: Monday, September 13, 2010 2:13:49 PM

Chlamydia is the number one cause of infertility and also the most common STI in teens. Many teens do not want their physicians to test them for Chlamydia because of lack of confidentiality with insurance companies sending bills to their parents. This is a barrier to getting treatment in a timely manor. Please consider allowing Pediatricians and Medical Homes to be able to order Chlamydia /Gonorrhea testing without an EOB .

Thanks
Cindy