History tells us that honest financial advise is typically swayed by profits and fees. Your support to enact without further delay the fiduciary rule would greatly benefit the public especially those of us who need basic information to stretch our retirement income and pay for healthcare.