The implementation of the Fiduciary Rule should be put into effect asap. I have been taken advantage of a broker changing investments saying this is a good idea. Although I find out it only gave him a higher advisory fee and no benefit to me. Many like myself tend to trust the broker until it's too late and a lot of money has been put in his pocket.
Your promptness to this matter is encouraged.
Thank you!