The fiduciary Rule requires financial advisers to make a client's best interest the priority in deciding how best to guide investing. Why is the Dept. Of Labor delaying enacting this common sense rule? I urge you place protecting a retiree's savings above the profiteering of advisors who may be motivated more by sales commissions than a clients well being. Enact and enforce The Fiduciary Rule immediately.