General Comment

It is incredible to me that ANY elected official would delay or prevent Financial Advisors from being required to provide sound advice from an Investment Advisor. In my opinion it is criminal for Advisors to give advice which cost the Investor MORE money for the same or similar results. I encourage you and your cohorts to introduce and vote to PASS this bill and I will be watching to see if indeed that happens or if the financial lobby negatively influences your vote. I am a voter and I VOTE and sometimes contribute to those elected officials who protect MY interests. Thank You.
