General Comment

There has been extreme confusion and chaos the rule has already caused.

There is direct impact the rule is having on the consumers you serve especially as it relates to insurance products and future availability and what the products may look like

I strongly support the best interest standard and have been working in the best interest of your clients for 5 plus years as I am series 65 licensed and have clients in MN and WI

There is a key role of importance that Fixed Index Annuities and other life insurance products have in the overall retirement planning process.

I request that the DOL grant the proposed delay to ensure its put in place with the best interests of all clients nationwide.
