General Comment

I wanted to make a comment that the proposed rule be allowed to have a 60-day postponement. It is having a very real impact on my customers as to insurance products in general, and the future availability of them in retirement planning. Items such as Equity Index Annuities and life insurance plans can form a very important part of the planning process. I support the best Interest standard, as I have been working for the best interest of my client since starting the career over 22 years ago. I hold currently the 6, 7, 63, 24 and 66 Licenses and am licensed in seven states.

Please do grant the 60-day delay
