General Comment

Helen McDonnell-helenmcdonnell@financialguide.com

I am supporting the delay of the DOL ruling. It appears with all the confusion and chaos the rule has already caused it would be in the best interests of the public to review this and the impact the rule is having on consumers that I serve especially as it relates to insurance products and the future availability. I do support the best interest of the client and only work in that capacity. I have been a licensed professional in the industry for 30 years.

Currently have a life, health, disability- Series 6 ,63 and am licensed in 6 states of which I have clients in all the states.

I feel as a consumer and a professional that if this ruling goes through without further research and debate it would be to the detriment of our consumers especially with the history of who and how it was created.

Thank you Please DELAY

Helen McDonnell
