

-----Original Message-----

From: Rasa Silenas [mailto:rsilenas@yahoo.com]

Sent: Thursday, March 16, 2017 3:38 PM

To: EBSA.FiduciaryRuleExamination

Subject: RIN 1210-AB79

Please do not reduce consumer safety by weakening the fiduciary rule for retirement investment. I'm probably in the top few percent of savvy investors and even I can't keep all the advice straight all the time. For the average middle class saver, the trustworthiness of a financial advisor is critical. And in the long run, conditions that lead people to make less than optimal decisions risks creating more poverty, which costs us all more in either safety net programs or increased burden on families.

Rasa Silenas

Sent from my iPad