

Dear Sec Hugler,

I'm writing you to ask you to implement the new fiduciary rule that was supposed to go into effect on April 10, 2017. I think financial advisors SHOULD be required to put their clients' interests first. Ultimately, if the public can not trust financial planners then both the American investors and the planners will be harmed financially.

Thank you for considering this matter carefully,

Donna Schaeffer

3715 NE 77 St #4
Seattle, WA 98115