General Comment

the DOL Fiduciary will restrict access to advice especially for the smaller investor. I am a Certified Financial Planner since 1992. What I do is personalized, custom advice for each UNIQUE client. Trying to promulgate broad stroke policies and regs will not work and will impede the client from obtaining their life and financial goals.

I urge you to rescind or change the rule. There are still so many questions and situations not addressed or even contemplated by this rule
