Mr. Alex Acosta

We've had the same advisor (with Merrill Lynch) for over 25 years. He has set up my account to earn dividend and the only transactions we do are when we give more money into the account.

This new DoL rule about charging a flat fee instead of commission is killing me. I now basically will see a charge of a few hundred bucks every month.

Please try to reverse the rule!

I do see where it will stop some corruption, but this hurts the innocent!

Thank you,
