Subject: RIN 1210-AB82 Protect retirees: Fully implement and enforce the fiduciary rule

Department of Labor,

If I have saved money for retirement, I expect that the person I pay and consult on how to invest my money should work in my best interests. It seems inconceivable that they should have a business service that takes my hard-earned money and puts it to their advantage. This is outrageous. How does this protect those of us who need our retirement money for retirement?
