General Comment

Hello,

As a Realtor, I have to provide my own health insurance. I'm 54 years old and in good health, the first year I paid 520/mo. And didn't use it once. At the end of the year, insurance company informed me it'd now be 630/mo. for same coverage. At the start of this year, was told it'd go to 750/mo. This is an increase of $3000 in two years after barely using the insurance. I had to cancel, as I can't afford 750/mo. Please do something to help Realtors have affordable health care, there are thousands of us going without insurance.

Sincerely,

T. Marks
