General Comment

Affordable health care has been the greatest challenge as an entrepreneur. The opportunity to come together as an association to create a plan would be a game changer for small business owners. Entrepreneurs are the backbone of the USA creating valuable jobs and opportunities for many. With an association group plan, more opportunities become a reality without the fear of losing corporate "security" because of health care. I implore you to explore, research and review this possibility to help associations remain a vibrant part of the fabric of businesses in America.
