General Comment

As a retired Teamster, I know the importance of a secure pension. Unfortunately, many of my brothers and sisters' earned future security is threatened. The US government is always ready to bail out banks and corporations while providing them tax cuts and social welfare, but where is the bailout for those who have worked hard and played fairly, not cheating it's way through life like the banksters and corporate sharks?

It's time you quit cloying up to the donor class and K Street and start supporting the working people--and poor-- of our country.

Your own pension is secure. Now secure the pensions of those you are supposed to represent.
