General Comment

It is with great relief that I read about the proposed ruling that will bring much needed reform to corporations. Too many today seem to confuse their mission (and obligation to pensioners and, by extension, the public) with a desire to achieve social engineering via pecuniary punishment and other penal codes, which are foisted upon those they deem nonconformists with their creeds. This ruling will bring much needed oversight to an area that has been neglected and therefore, open to gross manipulation and abuse of power. Please, please, pass this ruling. America needs and deserves it.
