General Comment

I support a ruling that requires Money Managers, Financial Directors, Fund Investors or any person or persons in the position of choosing the investments of funds for others, be they singular or group funds, be required to only invest those funds based on the Return on Investment to the benefit of the Investors or Stakeholders in those funds and not based on any environmental, social or political cause.

All Investment Funds, Retirement Funds or any Investment instrument that invest in such environmental, social or political causes should be full disclose and be identified to the potential individual investor prior to his or her investment of any funds and should be allowed only by individual investor and not by any collective or group investors or investment.
