General Comment

My husband and I have worked hard for all our lives, now a short time into retirement and your going to take our money?? What kind of country are we living in today? I think this is disgusting to even think that this would happen in the USA. Please vote no to taking our hard earned money. Or if the language is yes to leaving it alone then vote that way. There is always language to confuse the public. Either way I want to keep our own retirement money ALL of it.
