General Comment

Do NOT Pass This Rule.

I have spent years learning about options and how to trade them properly and safely, and it has helped me grow my retirement accounts tremendously.

It has also helped reduce my risk and helped limit my exposure in the market. By passing this rule, the government is once again restricting the avenues in which the general public can enhance their retirement income.

This is unfair and the complete opposite of what the government should be doing.

Do NOT Pass this Rule for the good of the people.
