General Comment

Please do not, by your rule making, eliminate my ability to trade options in my IRA.

I have several different retirement accounts including pension, 401k traditional and Roth IRAs.

I have used options to protect gains and minimize losses as well as some speculation in my self-directed IRA and do not rely on the custodian for advice.

I believe that I should be able to retain the ability to control risk for my own accounts and should not be arbitrarily limited in accepting or reducing those risks.

Thank you,

Martin Pflug
