General Comment

Leave us alone!

I have been successful enough in the past 3 years to have invested in Options Trading in my IRA to have increased value by will over $2,000. Not bad for an IRA portfolio of less than $70,000. Options trading, if done correctly and without government interference (read "HELP"), is not only safe but generates even more taxes for the government to eventually spend.

I cannot fathom why our government, by the people, for the people, it attempting once again to make it more difficult for us middle class citizens to crawl out of the doldrums and make our own lives a little better.

LEAVE US ALONE! Leave our IRA's alone!
