General Comment

I am a very conservative investor and utilize "covered calls" in my IRA trading accounts. Please do not meddle, restrict, impair, or otherwise alter current trading rules as regard options trading in retirement accounts! It's difficult enough for retirees to maintain, not to mention even growing by a little bit, our personal retirement avenues. Eliminating options trading in retirement accounts would be doing a grave disservice to us who've found the process a reasonably safe way of helping "pay our own way".
