General Comment

Being able to control the hard earned money I saved for retirement is a basic right that I wish to maintain. I vehemently oppose this bill which serves to restrict my ability to sell covered calls in my retirement Simple IRA. I have studied this investment strategy in depth and this will be a means of generating retirement income for myself and my wife when I retire in 8 years. Trading options in my IRA has also helped me move closer to my retirement goals by improving my performance. I am at a complete loss to know why this agency wants to deny my ability to choose how I invest for my retirement. It is my money! As I do not get a pension, please oppose this meddling by the government in my right to plan and invest for my retirement.
