General Comment

Dear Sir,
Dear Madam,

With respect to the EBSA rule RIN 1210 - AB32, Please consider the following comment:

I have learned to trade options as a method to limit risk and to improve portfolio performance, over decades. I understand in great depth options.

I am concerned that this rule will limit my ability to trade (buying and selling) options in my retirement account. Please do not limit that ability. Thousands of other investors depend on the freedom and ability to protect their retirement saving using options.

Thank you very much.
