General Comment

You can't try to stop the only way I have learned to make money for retirement. It is safer than buying stocks because wall str eet brokers buy and sell stocks and commodities by computer several second!! That leaves regular people no chance to buy and sell normally. After you learn to buy and sell options it's 100 times more safe than choosing a particular stock or mutual fund...That is actually the government telling what we can or can't do with OUR money!!
